

Reshaping Haunted Nuremberg

From the City of Nazi Party Rallies
to the Street of Human Rights

LECTURE BY

Dr. Pnina Rosenberg

The Technion—Israel Institute of Technology

Thursday, September 22, 2016

5:00 PM

Konover Auditorium, Thomas J. Dodd Research Center

Renowned Art Historian, Dr. Pnina Rosenberg from The Technion—Israel Institute of Technology, will provide insights about the city of Nuremberg, Germany, where locations associated with the Nazi Party have been transformed into educational and memorial sites designed to promote a human rights culture.

Sponsored by Global Affairs, the Thomas J. Dodd Research Center, the Department of Art & Art History, and the Center for Judaic Studies & Contemporary Jewish Life.